

JonDos GmbH was founded in March 2007 by Rolf Wendolsky and Thomas Dumler

In July 2007 the commercial system started

The research team of JonDos developed the JonDonym open-source software in cooperation with the University of Regensburg and the Technical University Dresden

The research team of JonDos developed the JonDoFox browser profile, which aims to provide very high client security for web browsing